

CHICATA

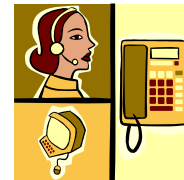

APRIL 2011 PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

Come and join us for a panel discussion about HEALTH CARE INTERPRETER CERTIFICATION

CHICATA will host a panel discussion featuring members Cristina Villanueva and Beth Farkas sharing information in the following areas:

- History of the medical interpreter certification process
- The pros and cons of the new medical certification programs
- What type of exams are available and how to prepare for them
- How to apply for a certification exam
- How this newly available Certification will affect the independent professional interpreter

Date and Time: Saturday, April 30, 2011

Refreshments: 2:30 – 3:00 PM

Panel: 3:00 – 4:00 PM

Networking 4:00 – 4:45 PM

Place: Sulzer Library – Community Meeting Room
4455 N Lincoln Avenue, Chicago IL

Cristina Villanueva is a full-time medical interpreter at Sherman Hospital. Beth Farkas is a medical interpreter in a triage call center, and has also worked in a hospital and as an independent contractor. She recently received Certified Healthcare Interpreter™ certification from CCHI, and is ATA-certified for Sp>En translations. They both have many years of experience as interpreters in the health care field.

Join us afterwards for dinner at:
Mediterranean Grill & Cuisine – 4609 N. Lincoln
(About two blocks north of the Sulzer Library)