

Chicago Area Translators and Interpreters Association

An Independent Professional Association

Post Office Box 804595, Chicago, IL 60680

www.chicata.org

Telephone (312) 836-0961

SEPTEMBER 2011 MEETING CERTIFICATION AS A COURT INTERPRETER

If you are considering or have questions about how to become a certified Court Interpreter, this meeting is for you.

CHICATA Member Yian Yang recently obtained her certification as a Court Interpreter from the National Center for State Courts. She has kindly offered to share her knowledge about how to best prepare for the test and will answer questions about her experience. Her presentation will include topics such as:

- Why get certified
- How much does it cost
- How to prepare for the exam
- Where to find resources to prepare for the exam
- How to manage the exam stress

The short presentation will be followed by an informal discussion and information sharing.

DATE: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2011

TIME: 2:30 – 4:30 P.M.

LOCATION: THE SULZER LIBRARY (COMMUNITY ROOM)

4455 North Lincoln Avenue

Chicago, IL 60625-2101

(312) 744-7616

(Networking 2:30 – 3:00 PM; Presentation and Discussion 3:00 to 4:30 PM)

Ms. Yian Yang is a professional English-Chinese conference interpreter and holds a Master's degree in Translation and Interpretation Studies from Fu Jen Catholic University, Taiwan. Through years of experience in the industry she has developed a passion for this field and is an advocate of high ethical and quality standards in interpreting. She received Court Interpreter's Certificate with the Indiana Supreme Court, successfully completing the official written and oral examinations standardized by the National Center for State Courts (NCSC). As a Court Interpreter she has worked at arbitrations, depositions, attorney-client meetings for disputes on worker's compensation, immigration, housing and health care. Born in Taiwan, Yian now resides in Chicago and is a member of CHICATA, NAJIT and ATA.